We're just warming up.

Trexler-Haines has been the Lehigh Valley's premier name in propane since 1935, offering a wide range of energy and ventilation products and services to both homes and businesses. Today, Trexler-Haines continues to grow as a family-owned and operated business, opening a Fine Appliance Showroom in 2006 and a Hearth Products Showroom in 2007.

Trexler-Haines' knowledgeable sales team tailors every selection to suit each individual's needs while providing first-class service. Its team of certified technicians specializes in professional installation, ensuring all-inclusive maintenance support.

Visit Trexler-Haines for all your propane, fine appliance and seasonal heating needs.
